

FSU Concurrent Enrollment Frequently Asked Questions

HOMEWORK!

- ENG 150: Based on reading & writing skills 3-4 hours homework weekly
- CRIM 110, HSMG 127 & RMIN 253: curriculum is embedded into course work but may have additional homework

How do concurrent enrollment partnerships benefit the student, instructors, and high school?

- Partnerships provide rigorous postsecondary academic challenges to high school students at the Career Center
- Courses focus student learning on critical thinking and writing skills
- Students are evaluated with multiple and varied assessments
- Career Center instructors are provided with ongoing professional development led by university faculty and staff
- Partnerships foster strong local networks among secondary and postsecondary educators
- College admissions officers now look for evidence of rigorous course work on students' high school transcripts
- Students earning concurrent enrollment credit may enjoy greater flexibility as full time college students by pursuing a second major or taking advantage of study abroad and/or internship opportunities
- Students are able to reduce their cost of a college education since concurrent enrollment tuition is covered by the Career Center

Where are the courses taught?

- Concurrent enrollment courses are taught at a career technical center.

Who teaches the class?

- Classes are taught by Career Center instructors who are approved by Ferris State faculty.

Where can I learn more about concurrent enrollment?

You may visit the National Alliance of Concurrent Enrollment Partnerships at www.nacep.org

How do I request my FSU college transcript?

- Current students can login to the Ferris State University website, click on MyFSU and enter their User Name and Password. Click on the My Academics tab and then the Transcripts and Enrollment Verification link. This will open the National Student Clearinghouse where you can enter your online request for transcripts from Ferris State University.
- Transcript fees: Transcripts are $5.00 per copy. Online transcript ordering through the National Student Clearinghouse carries an additional per order processing charge of $2.25 but gives the option of paying by credit card.
Request FSU Transcripts:
<http://www.ferris.edu/HTMLS/admission/registrar/transcriptRequest.htm>